

Redeeming Technology

This series of half-day workshops brings together creators of technology, users of technology, and thinkers of technology to explore the opportunities available in bringing a Christian understanding of technology to bear on research, teaching and life. The workshops will take place over five mornings, on the first Saturday of alternate months. Discussions and interactions will be based around talks given by two speakers for each session. Registration required.

Introduction

7th October 2017

Dr Mike BROWNNUTT
Associate Director of FaSCoRe,
University of Hong Kong

Introduction

7th October 2017

Dr LEUNG Wing-Tai
Founding President,
Lumina College

Redeeming Technology in Principle

2nd December 2017

Prof Lauren PFISTER
Department of Religion and Philosophy,
Hong Kong Baptist University

Redeeming Technology in Practice

2nd December 2017

Prof John WYATT
Professor of Ethics and Perinatology,
University College London

Redeeming Business Technology

3rd February 2018

Prof Keith CHAN
Department of Computing,
Hong Kong Polytechnic University

Redeeming Advertising Technology

3rd February 2018

Dr Melba MAGGAY
Social Anthropology,
Inst. for Studies in Asian Church & Culture

Redeeming Personal Technology

7th April 2018

Prof Ah Chung TSIO
Faculty of Information Technology,
Macau University of Science and Technology

Redeeming Communication Technology

7th April 2018

Prof Bob Fortner
School of Media Communication,
Palm Beach Atlantic University

Redeeming Education Technology

2nd June 2018

Prof Irwin KING
Engineering Faculty,
The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Redeeming Religious Technology

2nd June 2018

Dr YAM Chi Keung
Divinity School of Chung Chi College,
The Chinese University of Hong Kong

<http://lumina.org.hk/>

<http://faithandscience.hku.hk>